

Accredited Veterinary Schools

ACCREDITED VETERINARY SCHOOLS

All applicants to the Canadian National Examining Board (NEB) exam process must satisfy the NEB as to whether they are from an accredited or non-accredited school. This determines what exams they must take and pass to obtain a Certificate of Qualification (CQ).

Accreditation is granted by the Council of Education of the American Veterinary Medical Association. The Canadian NEB defers to this body.

At present, all U.S.(28) and Canadian (5) veterinary schools are accredited. Nine (9) schools from outside the U.S. and Canada are accredited (1 in England, 1 in Ireland, 2 in Scotland, 1 in the Netherlands, 1 in New Zealand and 3 in Australia).
